STATE REPRESENTATIVE

A Promise for Delaware

Lyndon has the experience and perspective to address the issues that matter to all hardworking Delawareans and his constituents in the 34th District. As the House Minority Whip, Lyndon has worked diligently to pass bipartisan legislation that addresses the issues that matter most to Delaware families.

In Dover, Lyndon is working hard to improve our schools, ease the tax burden on hardworking Delaware families, and curb rising rates of violent crime. A former teacher, small business owner, and dairy farmer, Lyndon brings a unique perspective to addressing the issues that matter to hardworking Delawareans, from New Castle County to Sussex, and right here in the 34th District.

Lyndon Yearick has a reputation for working across the aisle to pass meaningful legislation that makes a difference for Delaware families — regardless of their political affiliation.

From the Dairy Farm to the State House

From humble beginnings on their family farm, Lyndon's parents instilled in him the values of hard work, community service, and stewardship. He served as his senior high school class president, student council government in college, and graduated with academic honors from graduate school. Lyndon has lived the American dream, and he is working everyday to ensure Delawareans have the same opportunity to achieve their own.

A Servant Leader

For almost thirty years, the Yearick family has called Delaware home. Their three children attended Caesar Rodney Schools and graduated from Caesar Rodney High School. Lyndon has worked in the energy, banking, non-profit, and education industries. He has served on multiple non-profit boards, focusing on mentoring at-risk youth, supporting vulnerable seniors, and creating life-changing solutions for those experiencing homelessness.

A Bipartisan Leader

In Dover, Lyndon has sponsored bipartisan legislation that would cut taxes for the working class, reduce Delaware's realty transfer tax, improve government transparency, and advocate for legal, responsible gun ownership. As your State Representative, Lyndon actively organizes town hall meetings, public safety forums, school supply drives, food drives in partnership with the Food Bank of Delaware, small business awareness events, senior fraud prevention workshops, and community clean-up days.

“I will continue to dedicate my time to improving the lives of Delawareans and addressing the issues that matter most to our community.” - Lyndon

Improving Our Schools:

A former public school teacher and father of three, Lyndon has a unique perspective on the issues impacting Delaware students and teachers. In Dover, Lyndon has proudly supported legislation that would give our teachers the tools and resources necessary to provide our students with a quality education.

Keeping Our Communities Safe:

An advocate for public safety, Lyndon has worked with local law enforcement agencies and lawmakers in Dover to ensure law enforcement officers have the tools, resources, and training necessary to keep our communities safe.

Supporting Main Street:

A former small business owner, Lyndon knows what it is like to sign the front and the back of a paycheck. In Dover, Lyndon has fought to reduce regulations and get the government off of Main Street. Lyndon is fighting to make Delaware the best place to live, work, raise a family, and start a business.
